

48th Annual Folsom Pro Rodeo Quick Facts

Event Dates:

July 3, 4, 5, 2008

- Folsom City Lions Park, Dan Russell Rodeo Arena

Action:

- Seven-event PRCA rodeo – bull riding, bronc riding, saddlebronc riding, steer wrestling, team roping, barrel racing, tie-down roping

Time:

- Gates open at 6pm
- Roping events at 7pm
- Grand entry and riding events at 8:15pm

Carnival:

- 5 pm - midnight July 2-5

Something Special Every Night!

Thursday, July 3

Opening Night

- Be the first to see live rodeo action

Friday, July 4

Family Night

- Buckaroo Packs
4 general admission tixs, 4 sodas,
4 hotdogs, 4 carnival rides:
$50 per pack- save over 50%!

Saturday, July 5

Tough Enough to Wear Pink Night

- Portion of proceeds from each ticket donated to benefit Albie Aware Breast Cancer Foundation

Rodeo Favorites Every Night

- Spectacular In-Arena Fireworks
- Dramatic Parachute Jump into Arena
- Mutton Busting
- Silver Dollar Dig
- Dancing to the country tunes of The Dave Russell Band after the rodeo

Cattle Drive

Wednesday, July 2

- High Noon
- Historic Sutter Street
- Long-horn cattle
- The real Wells Fargo stage coach!
- Living history reenactments
- Equestrian Drill Teams
- Running with the Bulls Invitational Run
- Radio Disney Trick Your Pony

Pre-Cattle Drive Activities

- 9:00 am - Dan Russell Arena
- The Painted Ladies and other equestrian drill teams perform
- Free public viewing

Post-Cattle Drive Activities

- Family fun on the Chamber grounds
- Face Painting, magician, waterslide & more!

Ride RT light rail to the Cattle Drive for free with passes available at Sacramento area Boot Barns!

Pricing

$22.50 reserved seating
(reserved seats available online only)
$19 general admission adults
$15 general admission kids/seniors
(12 & under & 62 & over)
Group Tickets Available for 25 or more.
Call 985-2698.

Shuttle and Parking Info

- Free shuttle nightly!
Wal-Mart parking lot 5 pm – midnight
- Parking on arena grounds $5 on a first come basis

Trick Your Pony

The first 100 children 12 and under are invited to join Radio Disney for some free Trick Your Pony fun!

- Decorate and keep a stick pony
- Parade your stick pony in the cattle drive!
- Free rodeo fun!
- July 2, 11:15 a.m. to noon
- In the Hacienda Parking lot at the corner of Sutter and Riley
- Participants get to keep their pony and get a voucher for a free child rodeo admission ticket good for opening night of the rodeo on July 3.

Cal ISO/Flex Your Power Cool Down Corral

Rodeo goers will find a cool new feature at the rodeo— quite literally. The new Cal ISO/Flex Your Power Cool Down Corral will extend from the Dan Russell Arena grounds into the tree-covered lawn of Folsom City Lions Park, where rodeo fans will find not only shade, but misters, vendors serving cool refreshments, and picnic benches for dining.

Folsom Idol Search

- Community search for soloists or small groups to sing National Anthem and God Bless America
- Judging panel including local celebrities
- Auditions June 5th on Chamber grounds. Sign-ups at 5:30pm. Auditions at 6:30pm

Volunteers & Community Support

- More than 100 individuals volunteer each night
- Volunteers from community groups receive a monetary donation for their efforts
- More than $75,000 has been donated over the last few years to community volunteer groups
- Many individuals and groups have become part of the “Rodeo Family” and return year after year
- New volunteers are always welcome

Did you know.

- The Folsom Pro Rodeo provides a $1.6 million economic boost to the community
- Folsom Pro Rodeo is a Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association (PRCA) sanctioned event
- The Friends of Rodeo are onsite to protect livestock welfare and preserve the rodeo tradition
- The Rodeo is always held over 4th of July weekend

Tickets

Available online at www.FolsomProRodeo.com
General Admission tickets available at Handley’s Western Wear, and Sacramento Area Boot Barn stores(beginning June 16)
Or at the Folsom Chamber of Commerce (beginning June 23)

For Tickets and More Info Go to:
www.FolsomProRodeo.com